* To help keep registration rates low, families will participate in a $40 league fundraiser. Each family will be charged the $40 at registration and will be provided eight raffle tickets to sell for $5 each, to recover this fee.

The $40 fee is per family regardless of the number of players and is in addition to the rates listed above.

No family will incur registration costs in excess of $200, including the $40 fundraiser.

Raffle drawing will be conducted at Opening Day of the 2018 Spring Baseball season.

Any registrations submitted after the final in-person registration date must be completed online. In addition, late registrations received after February 24th are subject to a waiting list and not guaranteed placement on a team.

 SOFTBALL *****

Girls age 4-9 are eligible for co-ed Tee Ball and Coach Pitch divisions. Girls age 9-14 are eligible for Little League baseball or our NEW softball program. Softball will be designed based on interest and more details will be provided after registration.

 CHALLENGER DIVISION  (available through partnership with York Little League)

The Challenger Division was established in 1989 as a separate division of Little League to enable boys and girls with physical and mental challenges, ages 4-18, or up to age 22 if still enrolled in high school, to enjoy the game of baseball.

Please contact us for more information.

York City Little League is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization managed by an all-volunteer Board of Directors committed to this community and its children. All donations & registration fees are funneled directly back into York City Little League operations.
